AEGIS London INTERNATIONAL CASUALTY

AEGIS London has come a long way since its creation in 1999. The company, whose roots lie in energy and a mutual insurance business in the US, operates the AEGIS London syndicate at Lloyd's.

But AEGIS London covers much more than energy. In just over a decade it has diversified successfully into, among others, international casualty, war and terrorism, property, leisure, contingency and marine cargo – and is recognised as a leader in many of the markets in which it now operates.

This unique background has, in turn, resulted in a different kind of insurer and a different relationship with clients. We are known for being a 'people' business, for respecting those we work with – and operating for the mutual benefit of all involved – while resolving claims effectively.

We are proud of our roots and for the past ten years what we've done is build on them, striving to bring stability and long-term benefit to our clients while enhancing our reputation for being transparent, responsive and creative. As a company, we make no apologies for being ambitious, always looking for opportunities to bring a new, higher level of technical expertise to everything that we do. This is one of the reasons why clients stick with us.

AEGIS London's international casualty team is recognised as a major leader for utility and energy business, providing public and products liability and associated coverages on a primary and excess of loss basis, with the ability to offer up to 100% capacity. This is an area where our parent's energy heritage is an important asset.

However, international casualty is a very broad class and AEGIS London is fast gaining a reputation as a leader of choice for general business too. We deal on a daily basis with a mix of direct and facultative business: the direct coming mainly from territories like Australia and Canada, and the facultative from everywhere else in the world, in particular South America, the Far East and Europe.

The one thing that's certain in this area is that life is never dull. The team is well versed in dealing with mining one day, general manufacturing and construction the next along with myriad other challenges.

So why do brokers come to AEGIS London's team and, more importantly, choose us as lead market for general casualty business as well as energy?

In an area where time pressures are paramount, we offer a depth and a range of expertise not easily found elsewhere, with guaranteed speed of response and availability.

Our team of four underwriters have over 60 years' experience between them. In addition we have language skills which can be particularly useful when dealing with the South American market. We are told brokers find us approachable, easy to deal with and keen to assist. We know they want quick answers and we aim to deliver.
