DEAR AEGIS MEMBERS AND BROKERS...

We are pleased to present the calendar and details for the 2009 AEGIS Claims Roundtable Program.

The AEGIS Claims Roundtable Program is a one-of-a-kind educational program that helps claims professionals, energy industry attorneys, risk managers and loss control specialists manage the claims-related issues they face. The faculties are carefully selected from an ever-expanding pool of recognized claims managers, expert attorneys and other consultants, and the topics embrace a variety of issues of current concern. The seminar format is designed to encourage creativity and participation while enhancing understanding of the fundamentals of claims and litigation management.

The program was created by the AEGIS Claims Division in 1987 as an integral part of our commitment to provide member companies with superior claims-related services. Since its inception, the program has reached nearly 1,200 representatives of almost 200 utility and energy companies, and today membership enthusiasm and participation are greater than ever.

For those unable to travel to East Rutherford, Claims Roundtable seminars have been scheduled in San Diego, Chicago, Williamsburg, Orlando and Phoenix. If you are interested in hosting a seminar or bringing one to your area, please contact a member of the Claims Roundtable Committee.

Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits are once again offered. AEGIS requests CLE accreditation from all states with mandatory continuing legal education requirements.

VIDEOCONFERENCING

Members can participate in the 2009 East Rutherford seminars by way of videoconferencing. Please call Sharon Sarch at 201.508.2654 or e-mail her at sharonsarch@aegislimited.com two weeks prior to the scheduled seminar.

REGISTRATION

Please take a moment to review the 2009 schedule as well as the registration information on the last page.

We recommend registration at least 14 days prior to each seminar. If you wish to register by phone or with less advanced notice, please contact Sharon Sarch at 201.508.2654.

We look forward to seeing you at our Claims Roundtable seminars.

BRUCE W. ROZNOWSKI
Senior Vice President, Claims

WITNESS PREPARATION

January 8 – East Rutherford, NJ • January 22 – San Diego, CA

Have you ever received a report from your lawyer that an evaluation must be changed because one of your employees misstated something in his or her deposition? Have you ever been told that the corporate deponent went too far and said something outside the scope of his or her knowledge?

Witness preparation is one of the most critical areas in litigation, yet it is often overlooked. The prepared witness helps the jury to focus by presenting his or her story in a clear and likeable manner. Experienced trial lawyers, expert witnesses, industry professionals and corporate representatives will share their strategies for preparing witnesses for depositions and trial.

INVESTIGATING AND DEFENDING FIRE AND EXPLOSION CASES

May 14 – East Rutherford, NJ • June 4 – Chicago, IL

The faculty, who will include experienced in-house and outside litigation counsel and a nationally known forensic engineer, will discuss the important elements of the investigation and defense of a fire or explosion claim, starting with the incident scene itself. Discussion topics will include access to the scene, the proper documentation of a scene, preservation and spoliation of evidence, sampling and testing both on-site and off-site, identification of interested parties, identification of key evidence, and the presentation of expert testimony. Case studies of scene investigations will be presented for both gas and electrical incidents.

CLIMATE CHANGE RISKS, LIABILITIES AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR UTILITIES

September 10 – Chicago, IL • September 17 – Orlando, FL • September 24 – Phoenix, AZ

The year 2009 will be a pivotal period for climate change initiatives in the United States, and the utility industry will undoubtedly shoulder much of the burden in achieving necessary carbon reductions. This Roundtable seminar will provide a snapshot of evolving climate change initiatives, including emerging federal legislation, maturing state mandatory reduction programs, ongoing carbon reporting and trading activities, and litigation exposure trends. The faculty will include utility industry experts and lawyers at the forefront of helping to develop U.S. and international climate change programs and representatives from companies that are engaging in the business opportunities created by climate change.
